TRUSTEE'S MOTION FOR APPROVAL OF THE SETTLEMENT STIPULATIONS BETWEEN THE TRUSTEE AND: (A) JASON BRAND, JONATHAN BRAND AND ALAN BRAND; (B) THE STATE OF NEW YORK, RICHARD GROSS AND GERALD BETHEA; AND (C) JOHN CORNACHIO AND ANDREA CORNACHIO

TO THE HONORABLE STUART M. BERNSTEIN, UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE

Alan Nisselson, as Chapter 7 Trustee (the “Trustee”) of Narco Freedom, Inc. (“the “Debtor,” or “Narco Freedom”), submits this motion pursuant to Rule 9019 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”) and respectfully represents:

RELIEF REQUESTED

1. The Trustee seeks approval of the attached settlement stipulations between the Trustee and the following parties: (A) Jason Brand, Jonathan Brand and Alan Brand (the “Brand Stipulation”, attached hereto as “Exhibit A”); (B) the State of New York (the “State”), Richard Gross and Gerald Bethea (the “Gross/Bethea Stipulation”, attached hereto as “Exhibit B”); and (C) John Cornachio and Andrea Cornachio (the “Cornachio Stipulation”, attached hereto as “Exhibit C”) (collectively, the “Settlement Stipulations”).

2. By virtue of the settlements embodied in the Settlement Stipulations, 1) the above-referenced adversary proceeding by the Trustee, seeking a declaration that the assets of the Debtor’s 457(b) Deferred Compensation Plan (the “457(b) Plan”) are property of the Debtor’s Estate and for turnover of the 457(b) Plan assets to the Trustee (the “Adversary Proceeding”), will be fully resolved; 2) claims to the funds held by the Trustee in a segregated account for executive pay as to five former executives (the “Vacation Pay Fund”) will be fully resolved; and (3) the executives’ Bankruptcy Claims No. 2, No. 83, No. 84, No. 104 and No. 119 will be extinguished.

3. The settlements embodied in the Settlement Stipulations benefit the Estate by (a) releasing to Narco Freedom’s Estate some of the assets from the 457(b) Plan and the Vacation Pay Fund; (b) extinguishing the executives’ Bankruptcy Claims; and (c) avoiding the need for expensive litigation that would deplete the Estate.

JURISDICTION; VENUE; GROUNDS FOR RELIEF

4. This Court has jurisdiction to consider this Motion pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 151, 157 and 1334 and the Amended Standing Order of Reference of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York (the “District Court”) dated January 31, 2012 (Preska, C.J.). Venue of this case and this Motion in this District is proper under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

The statutory predicate for the relief sought herein is Rule 9019 of the Bankruptcy Rules. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2)(A) and (O).

6. In October 2014, the United States commenced a civil action against Narco Freedom in the District Court under the Fraud Injunction Statute, 18 U.S.C. § 1345, alleging that Narco Freedom was violating the “Anti-Kickback Statute,” 42 U.S.C. § 1320a-7b, by offering below-cost housing to residents of the Freedom Houses to induce them to enroll in Narco Freedom-run drug treatment programs. United States of America v. Narco Freedom, Inc., Docket No. 14-cv-8593.¹ (AIR Doc. 1.)

7. On April 3, 2015, the District Court entered an order appointing Lori Lapin Jones as temporary receiver of the Debtor (the “Temporary Receiver”). (AIR Doc 147.)

8. On July 16, 2015, Judge Koeltl approved the Temporary Receiver’s stabilization plan for Narco Freedom (AIR Doc. 206), and on September 11, 2015, he approved the Temporary Receiver’s plan to transition all of Narco Freedom’s clinics and housing to other healthcare providers. (AIR Doc. 250.)

9. On January 19, 2016 (the “Petition Date”), the Temporary Receiver, with the District Court’s approval, filed Narco Freedom’s voluntary petition for relief under chapter 7 of the United States Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq. (the “Bankruptcy Code”). (AIR Doc. 383, Doc. 1.) Also on the Petition Date, the United States Trustee appointed Alan Nisselson as interim trustee for the Debtor's estate. The Trustee has since qualified as permanent trustee and filed for and is covered by a bond.

10. In October 2014, the New York State Attorney General (“NYAG”) issued an indictment charging the Debtor with the crimes of receiving bribes, fraud and money laundering, which was superseded and expanded in March 2015 (The People of the State of New York v. Alan Brand, Jason Brand, Gerald Bethea, Richard Gross, Narco Freedom, Inc., Daso Development, Inc., Indictment No. 0783/2015 (Supreme Court, Bronx County)), and also issued a companion indictment in March 2015, which included a charge of grand larceny against John Cornachio (The People of the State of New York v. Jonathan Brand and John Cornachio, Indictment No. 0782/2015 (Supreme Court, Bronx County)) (the “Criminal Proceeding”).

THE 457(b) PLAN ADVERSARY PROCEEDING

11. On or about June 15, 2016, the Trustee filed the 457(b) Plan Adversary proceeding against former employees of the Debtor Jason Brand, Jonathan Brand, Alan Brand, Richard Gross, John Cornachio and Andrea Cornachio, and also against Matrix Trust Company (“Matrix”) and PenServ Plan Services, Inc. (“PenServ”) for a declaration that the assets of the Debtor's 457(b) Plan are property of the Debtor's Estate and for turnover of the 457(b) Plan assets to the Trustee.² (AP Doc. 1.)

(“Pryor & Mandelup”), filed an answer to the complaint in the 457(b) Plan Adversary Proceeding, each asserting rights to their respective retirement account value under the 457(b) Plan. (AP Doc. 5.)

16. On behalf of said defendants, Pryor & Mandelup have asserted that the funds in the 457(b) Plan are not property of the Estate, but are property of the individual employees enrolled in the 457(b) Plan.

20. The Vacation Pay Fund was originally set aside by the Temporary Receiver pursuant to order of Judge Koeltl, and thereafter turned over to the Trustee.

30. Gerald Bethea and the State entered into a Settlement Agreement as of April 20, 2017 of the State Civil Action (the "Bethea State Settlement Agreement"). In sum, John Cornachio will receive 70% of the 457(b) Plan balance attributable to him, valued at $62,115.37 as of June 30, 2017, less Applicable Withholding;⁵ and the Trustee will receive the 30% remainder of the 457(b) Plan balance attributable to John Cornachio.⁶

45. The principal terms of the Cornachio Stipulation as to Andrea Cornachio are as follows: (a) Andrea Cornachio will receive a remittance equaling 80% of the final retirement account value for the 457(b) Plan account attributable to her less Applicable Withholding, and the

⁴ The funds for John Cornachio, less attorneys' fees, will be held in an escrow account by his counsel under the terms set forth in the Cornachio Stipulation.

⁵ Using this balance as an example, the 70% settlement amount for John Cornachio (before deductions of Applicable Withholding) as of June 30, 2017 would equal $43,480.76.

⁶ Again using the June 30, 2017 statement balance as an example, the Trustee would receive $18,634.61 as of that date.

Trustee will remit the Applicable Withholding to the appropriate taxing authorities; (b) she will release the Trustee and all his agents and Narco Freedom on the specific terms set forth in the Cornachio Stipulation; and (c) the Trustee will release Andrea Cornachio on the specific terms set forth in the Cornachio Stipulation. In sum, Andrea Cornachio will receive 80% of the 457(b) Plan balance attributable to him, valued at $59,153.71 as of June 30, 2017, less Applicable Withholding;⁷ and the Trustee will receive the 20% remainder of the 457(b) Plan balance attributable to Andrea Cornachio.⁸

46. Also pursuant to each of the Settlement Stipulations, each of the settling parties to the respective Stipulations will release Matrix and PenServ, except as to their obligations under each stipulation.

47. Once all aspects of the Settlement Stipulations have been performed, the Trustee will seek dismissal of the 457(b) Plan Adversary Proceeding.

LEGAL BASIS

I. THE SETTLEMENT

48. Bankruptcy Rule 9019(a) states, in pertinent part, that “[o]n motion by the trustee and after notice and a hearing, the court may approve a compromise or settlement.” Courts have held that in order to approve a settlement or compromise under Bankruptcy Rule 9019(a), a court should find that the compromise proposed is fair and equitable, reasonable, and in the best interests of a debtor’s estate. Air Line Pilots Assoc., Int’l v. Am. Nat’l Bank & Trust Co. of Chicago (In re Ionosphere Clubs, Inc.), 156 BR 414, 426 (S.D.N.Y. 1993), aff’d, 17 F.3d 600 (2d Cir. 1994)

⁷ Using this balance as an example, the 80% settlement amount for Andrea Cornachio (before deductions of Applicable Withholding) as of June 30, 2017 would equal $47,322.97.

⁸ Again using the June 30, 2017 statement balance as an example, the Trustee would receive $11,830.74 as of that date.

(citing Protective Comm. for Indep. Stockholders of TMT Trailer Ferry, Inc. v. Anderson, 390 U.S. 414, 424 (1968)).

49. The Second Circuit has stated that, in determining whether to approve a compromise, the court should not decide the numerous questions of law and fact raised by the compromise; rather it should “canvass the issues and see whether the settlement ‘fall[s] below the lowest point in the range of reasonableness.’” Cosoff v. Rodman (In re W.T. Grant Co.), 699 F.2d 599, 608 (2d Cir.), cert. denied, Cosoff v. Rodman, 464 U.S. 822 (1983) (quoting Newman v. Stein, 464 F.2d 689, 693 (2d Cir.), cert. denied, 409 U.S. 1039 (1972)); see also In re Chemtura Corp., 439 B.R. 561, 594 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2010). “[T]he court need not conduct a ‘mini-trial’ to determine the merits of the underlying litigation.” In re Purified Down Prods. Corp., 150 B.R. 519, 522 (S.D.N.Y. 1993).

50. The factors courts in the Second Circuit consider when approving bankruptcy settlements are well established:

(1) the balance between the litigation’s possibility of success and the settlement’s future benefits; (2) the likelihood of complex and protracted litigation, with its attendant expense, inconvenience, and delay, including the difficulty in collecting on the judgment; (3) the paramount interests of the creditors, including each affected class’s relative benefits and the degree to which creditors either do not object to or affirmatively support the proposed settlement; (4) whether other parties in interest support the settlement; (5) the competency and experience of counsel supporting, and [t]he experience and knowledge of the bankruptcy court judge reviewing, the settlement; (6) the nature and breadth of releases to be obtained by officers and directors; and (7) the extent to which the settlement is the product of arm’s length bargaining.

Fox v. Picard (In re Madoff), 848 F.Supp.2d. 469, 487-488 (S.D.N.Y. 2012), aff’d, 740 F.3d 81 (2d. Cir. 2014) (quoting Motorola, Inc. v. Official Comm. of Unsecured Creditors (In re Iridium Operating LLC), 478 F.3d 452, 462 (2d Cir. 2007) (internal quotation marks and citations omitted)).

51. Even though the Court has discretion to approve settlements and must independently evaluate the reasonableness of the settlement, In re Rosenberg, 419 B.R. 532, 536 (Bankr. E.D.N.Y. 2009), the business judgment of the Trustee and his counsel should be considered in determining whether a settlement is fair and equitable. In re Chemtura Corp., 439 B.R. at 594. Finally, the Court should be mindful of the principle that “the law favors compromise.” Vaughn v. Drexel Burnham Lambert Group, Inc. (In re Drexel Burnham Lambert Group, Inc.), 134 B.R. 499, 505 (quoting In re Blair, 538 F.2d 849, 851 (9th Cir. 1976)).

52. Here, the Trustee’s settlements with each of the respective settling parties is fair and equitable and in the best interests of the Debtor’s estate and its other creditors.

53. The settlements embodied by the Settlement Stipulations are in the paramount interest of creditors. As a result of the settlements, in addition to the other benefits to the Estate, the Narco Freedom Estate will receive an aggregate amount, anticipated to be in excess of $100,000.⁹ Absent the settlements, the Trustee would be required to litigate difficult issues as to both the 457(b) Plan and the Vacation Pay Fund and there is no certainty that the Trustee would succeed as to either.

54. For example, while there exists clear case law indicating that the assets of a 457(b) plan like the Debtor’s Plan are assets of the Estate and do not belong to the plan participants, Section 541 of the Bankruptcy Code contains an express exclusion from the definition of property of the estate for “any amount—(A) withheld by an employer from the wages of employees for payment as contributions—(i) to... (II) a deferred compensation plan under section 457 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.” See 11 U.S.C. 541(b)(7). As to the Vacation Pay Fund, while the Trustee has arguments that some or all of the employees should be treated as unfaithful servants, there is legal authority in this jurisdiction that setoff against an employee’s compensation is impermissible.

55. The claimants’ acceptances of lower settlement amounts as compared to the amounts sought in their respective claims increases the amount available for distribution to the Debtor’s other creditors.

56. An additional benefit of the Settlement Stipulations is that the Trustee will avoid having to further litigate the 457(b) Plan Adversary Proceeding and the Vacation Pay Fund issue and the potential attendant costs and delays of such litigation.

57. Furthermore, the Settlement Stipulations will expunge claims by four former employees that equal an aggregate amount of $979,560.63. While the Trustee believes those claims may be duplicative, particularly to the extent these are claims to recover vacation pay and /or the 457(b) Plan funds, nevertheless, the Settlement Stipulations will eliminate the need for the Trustee to litigate those issues as to the claims as well.

58. The settlements are the product of arm’s length, good faith negotiations between the Trustee and the respective settling parties and their counsel.

59. For all of these reasons, the settlements are well within the “range of reasonableness,” In re W.T. Grant Co., 699 F.2d at 608 (quoting Newman v. Stein, 464 F.2d at 693), and confer a substantial benefit on the estate and its general unsecured creditors. The Trustee respectfully requests that the Court approve the Settlement Agreement.

NOTICE

60. In accordance with Bankruptcy Rule 9019, notice of this motion is being given to (a) the United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York; (b) the Attorney General for the State of New York; (c) the Office of the United States Trustee; (d) all parties who filed notices of appearance in the bankruptcy case and/or the 457(b) Plan Adversary Proceeding; (e) PenServ; (f) all creditors listed on the Debtor's schedules or who filed proofs of claim; and (g) known officers, directors, equity interest holders and principals of the Debtor, to the extent that their contact information is known or available. The Trustee submits that no other notice is required.

WHEREFORE, the Trustee respectfully requests the Court approve the proposed Settlement Stipulations attached as Exhibits A through C, so order the Settlement Stipulations, and grant such other and further relief as is just.
